CHAMBER CHATTER

FROM THE DESK OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, FREDA CHAPMAN

It's hard to believe that we are half way thru 2017. It's also hard to believe that the Middletown Chamber is celebrating it's third-year anniversary this month. Your Chamber is working hard to meet the needs of its members with monthly Luncheons, Lunch and Learn workshops, ribbon cuttings, after-hour networking events, more website and social media coverage, not to mention our annual events such as an Easter Egg hunt, Golf Scramble, Night of Heroes, Trick or Treat/Pancake breakfast, Light Up Middletown/Business Expo and Christmas dinner.

Speaking of events – don't forget that the annual Middletown Family Fun Festival is quickly approaching on September 8th and 9th. New this year, a 5K run/walk the night before on Thursday @ 7:00 p.m. If you are interested in having a booth at the Festival, please call Eventualities, the event planner, at (502) 241-1175. You can also download the application off of the Chamber website. If you are interested in participating or sponsoring the 5K, please call the Chamber office @ (502) 245-0404.

CHAMBER LUNCHEON

Our next speaker on 7/13/17, REPRESENTATIVE JASON M. NEMES, is married to his high-school sweetheart, Leslie, and is the father of three boys, Sam (11), Will (8), and Daniel (6). He practices law at the law firm of Nemes Eade, PLLC in Middletown. He is also a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives, where he represents portions of eastern Jefferson County and southern Oldham County. In the General Assembly, Mr. Nemes oversees the Court of Justice's and Justice Cabinet's budgets as chair of the House Budget Review Subcommittee on Justice, Public Safety, & Judiciary. He also serves as a member of the Appropriations & Revenue, Judiciary, Elections and Constitutional Amendments, and Economic Development and Workforce Investment committees. Prior to practicing law, Mr. Nemes served as the Chief of Staff to the Office of the Chief Justice of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts. He graduated from Western Kentucky University and the University of Louisville School of Law, where he has served periodically as an adjunct professor.
